

REID AND RIEGE, P.C.
COUNSELLORS AT LAW

Health Care IT

Many in health care are promoting information technology as a panacea for the ills of the industry. True or not, there are government financial incentives that have attached to the adoption and use of IT, and therefore much interest currently on the part of hospitals and physician group practices in integrating information technology into their operations. We assist our clients in the evaluation and negotiation of IT relationships, including contract and service issues.

Attorneys

- Adam Carter Rose