

REID AND RIEGE, P.C.
COUNSELLORS AT LAW

Intellectual Property

The Intellectual Property Group at Reid and Riege has a broad range of experience in representing clients on matters pertaining to copyright, trademark, patent and trade secret law. We work with clients to develop and carry out their intellectual property strategies through a variety of related services.

Copyright Law

Our attorneys advise clients regarding their rights and the likelihood of copyright infringement. We draft and negotiate licensing agreements, draft disclaimers and draft and respond to demand letters. We also have experience litigating infringement actions and registering works with the United States Copyright Office.

Trademark Law

The Intellectual Property Group advises clients regarding what makes a successful trademark or service mark, including their rights and the likelihood of infringement. Our attorneys are responsible for registering trademarks with the United States Patent and Trademark Office as well as with state offices. As with copyright law, we work with clients to draft disclaimers, draft and respond to demand letters, as well as drafting and negotiating licensing agreements. Our attorneys represent clients before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board as well as litigating infringement actions in state and federal court.

Patent Law

The Intellectual Property Group is experienced in advising clients on their rights, the likelihood of patent success and the likelihood of patent infringement. We draft and negotiate licensing agreements as well as disclaimers and demand letters related to client patents. Our attorneys litigate infringement actions and provide counseling and representation with respect to proceedings conducted by the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

Trade Secret Law

Our attorneys draft nondisclosure agreements pertaining to trade secrets and advise clients regarding appropriate protocol to maintain trade secret status.

Attorney

- Mary M. Miller